

Contents

Preface	V
Extract from the report of the Meeting of Experts on the Recording and Notification of Occupational Accidents and Diseases (Geneva, 3-11 October 1994)	XV
1. General provisions	1
1.1. Objectives	1
1.2. Scope	2
1.3. Definitions	2
2. Policy on recording, notification and investigation of occupational accidents, occupational diseases and dangerous occurrences, and related statistics	7
2.1. Policy and principles at national level	7
2.2. Policy and principles at enterprise level	9
3. Legal, institutional and administrative arrangements for setting up reporting, recording and notification systems	11
3.1. General	11
3.2. Classification of information to be recorded and notified ...	13
4. Reporting at the level of the enterprise	15
5. Arrangements for recording	16
5.1. At national level	16
5.2. At the level of the enterprise	17
6. Arrangements for notification	19
6.1. At national level	19
6.2. At the level of the enterprise	21
6.3. Notification of occupational accidents	21
6.3.1. General	21
6.3.2. Minimum information	22
6.3.3. More detailed information	23
6.4. Notification of occupational diseases	25
6.5. Notification of dangerous occurrences	26
	XI

Recording and notification

7. Extension of recording and notification systems to self-employed persons	27
7.1. At national level	27
7.2. At the level of the enterprise	28
7.3. The self-employed person	28
8. Statistics of occupational accidents, occupational diseases, commuting accidents and dangerous occurrences – Compilation and publication	29
8.1. At national level	29
8.2. Recording and notification of more detailed information in a progressive manner	31
9. Statistics of occupational accidents, occupational diseases and dangerous occurrences: Classifications	32
9.1. General	32
9.2. Occupational accidents	32
9.3. Occupational diseases	33
9.4. Dangerous occurrences	34
10. Investigation of occupational accidents, occupational diseases, commuting accidents, dangerous occurrences and incidents	35
10.1. At national level	35
10.2. At the level of the enterprise	36
10.3. Workers and the investigation of occupational accidents, occupational diseases, dangerous occurrences and incidents	38
Bibliography	39
Relevant international Labour Conventions and Recommendations ..	41
Annexes:
A. Schedule I: List of occupational diseases (amended 1980)	45
B. Proposed list of occupational diseases	48
C. International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities (third revision)	53
D. International Standard Classification of Occupations (ISCO-88), major, sub-major and minor groups	58
E. International Classification of Status in Employment (ICSE) ..	65
F. Classification of industrial accidents according to the nature of the injury	75

Contents

G. Classification of industrial accidents according to the bodily location of the injury	78
H. Classification of industrial accidents according to type of accident	82
I. Classification of industrial accidents according to agency	85
Index	91