

CONTENTS

Preface .....	V
Preface to the second edition .....	VII
Acknowledgements .....	XIII
PART I: UNDERSTANDING VIOLENCE AT WORK
Chapter 1. Introduction: A catalyst for action .....	3
Learning from workplace tragedies .....	3
The emergence of violence at work as an issue .....	6
The United States .....	8
South Africa .....	8
The United Kingdom .....	8
France .....	9
Japan .....	9
The Philippines .....	9
Germany .....	10
The changing profile of violence at work .....	11
From awareness to action .....	15
The ILO's engagement .....	15
The scope of the report .....	19
Chapter 2. Patterns and trends .....	21
Tempering concern with caution .....	21
Definitions and similar matters .....	23
1996 International Crime Victim Survey (ICVS) .....	25
Victimization at the workplace .....	26
Prevalence of victimization .....	27
Context of victimization .....	27
Age of victims .....	28
Weapons used in committing crimes .....	29
Reporting to the police or to other authorities .....	30
A unique but still limited vision .....	30
Workplace violence: Regional and national data .....	31
Scale and severity: Europe .....	32
Sexual harassment .....	33
Physical violence .....	34
	IX

Violence at work

Intimidation and bullying .....	35
Health effects of violence at work.....	35
Effects on absences from work .....	35
Scale and severity: North America .....	36
Homicide .....	37
Assaults.....	40
Sexual harassment.....	44
Bullying.....	45
Mobbing.....	46
Occupations at special risk .....	46
Costs and consequences.....	47
Individual costs.....	48
Organizational costs .....	48
Community costs.....	49
Chapter 3. Explanations.....	51
Complex causes, complex solutions.....	51
Factors leading to violence .....	52
Individual behaviour and workplace violence.....	58
Interactive model and explanation.....	62
Perpetrators.....	62
Victims.....	64
Environment .....	65
Situations at risk.....	66
Working alone .....	66
Working in contact with the public.....	68
Working with valuables and cash handling .....	70
Working with people in distress .....	71
Working in an environment increasingly "open" to violence .....	72
Working in conditions of special vulnerability .....	74
Outcome .....	78
Towards finding responses.....	80

PART II: RESPONDING TO VIOLENCE AT WORK

Chapter 4. Legislative and regulatory interventions .....	83
Legal responsibilities and rights .....	84
Legal and regulatory expansion.....	84
Criminal law.....	84
Civil and common law .....	85
Employment injury legislation .....	88
Health and safety legislation.....	90
Prevention through environmental measures.....	93
Specific measures against violence at work .....	95
Special risk factors: Working alone .....	96
Occupations particularly at risk: Health care and social service workers..	96
Special types of violence: Sexual harassment.....	96

Encouraging action against violence .....	98
Collective agreements on violence at work .....	99
From intervention to action.....	101
Chapter 5. Guidelines and best practice.....	103
Choosing the best approach .....	105
Preventive strategies and measures .....	110
Preventive strategies.....	110
Preventive measures .....	111
Selection and screening .....	111
Training.....	113
Information and communication.....	114
Physical environment and layout .....	115
Work organization and job design.....	116
Dealing with violent incidents .....	118
Defusing aggression.....	118
Immediate action after violent incidents .....	119
Post-incident management.....	120
From national to cross-national approaches .....	125
Chapter 6. International action .....	127
The hazards of a global workplace .....	128
Violence at work in the context of human rights.....	128
Action by international agencies .....	133
Violence at work as a labour issue.....	133
Violence at work as a health and safety issue.....	133
Violence at work as a criminal justice issue.....	135
Internal action within the United Nations system .....	135
Regional initiatives to combat violence at work .....	139
PART III: FUTURE GUIDANCE
Chapter 7. Beyond violence: Lessons for future action .....	145
Repudiating violence .....	146
From a hidden to a disclosed issue .....	146
From a restricted to a public issue .....	148
From an issue for discussion to an issue for action.....	152
Focusing international action .....	154
References .....	157
Tables
1. International Crime Victim Survey – Participating countries in which data on violence at work were collected in 1996, by regions .....	25
2. ICVS – Prevalence rates of victimization at the workplace, by type of incident, gender and region, 1996.....	27
	XI

Violence at work

3. ICVS – Context of victimization by gender, type of incident and place of occurrence, 1996.....	28
4. ICVS – Victimization at the workplace, by gender, type of incident and age group, 1996 .....	28
5. ICVS – Incidents involving the use of weapons, by place of occurrence, gender and type of incident, 1996 .....	29
6. ICVS – Weapons used in non-sexual assault, by gender of victims, place of occurrence and type of weapon, 1996.....	29
7. ICVS – Non-sexual assaults reported to the police or to other authorities, by gender and place of occurrence, 1996 .....	30
8. Violence at work in the European Union, 1996 .....	33
9. Workplace homicides in the United States, 1980-92 .....	37
10. Workplace homicides by industry, United States, 1980-92.....	38
11. Workplace homicides in high-risk occupations, United States, 1983-89 and 1990-92 .....	39
12. Circumstances of workplace homicides, United States, 1992-94 .....	39
13. Violence against women at the workplace, by age and education, Italy, 1997-98 .....	44
14. The impact of violence at the workplace, United States, 1996 .....	49
15. National homicide rates per 100,000 inhabitants, 1994.....	53
16. Types of violent incidents experienced at work, by industry, United Kingdom, 1994 .....	68
17. Violence towards health-care personnel, as shown in the literature around the world, 1981-94.....	73
18. Occupational violence incidents experienced by 1,438 workers in selected occupational groups (percentage of each sample), Australia, 1993-98.....	75
19. Risk assessment cycle.....	142

Figures

1. The nature of aggression: Report on the Canadian Union of Public Employees' National Health and Safety Survey of Aggression Against Staff, 1994 .....	12
2. Sexual harassment in the European Union, 1996.....	34
3. Bullying in the European Union, 1996.....	34
4. Exposure to stress in the European Union, 1996 .....	35
5. Absences over the last 12 months in the European Union, 1996.....	36
6. Leading causes of occupational injury deaths, United States, 1980-1992 .....	40
7. Violent acts resulting in days away from work, by source of injury, United States, 1992 .....	41
8. Registered work injuries caused by violence and threat, by gender, Sweden, 1985-94 .....	42
9. Age profile of London Underground Ltd. employees and staff assaulted, January 1993 to August 1996 .....	43
10. Respondents' experience of workplace bullying, further and higher education, Wales, 1998.....	45
11. Number of work accidents involving violence or threats in Sweden by occupational sector, 1994 .....	47
12. Workplace violence: An interactive model .....	63
13. 1997 ILO Survey on violence at work among United Nations organizations: Is violence at work a concern? .....	137
14. 1997 ILO Survey: Violence at work: Type of concern .....	138
15. 1997 ILO Survey: Violence at work: Action taken.....	138