

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword	6
A) Population Dynamics and Ageing in Thailand	7-17
1. Dramatic Rise of the Elderly Population	7
2. Demographic Transition	9
3. The Process of Population Ageing	11
4. Ageing and Dependency	13
5. Changing Pattern of 'Old-Old' and 'Young-Old'	15
6. Sub-national Differences in Ageing	16
B) Socio-economic Implications of Ageing in Thailand	18-28
1. Social Background of Thai Elderly	18
2. House and Physical Environment	19
3. Family and Care for the Elderly	20
4. Impact of Ageing on the Economy	23
5. Double Burdens of Simultaneously Supporting Children and Elderly Parents of the Middle-age Population (aged 40- 54)	24
6. Economically Active Elderly	25
7. Economic Status of Thai Elderly and Economic Security	27

C) Health Status of Thai Elderly	29-45
1. Mortality Profile and Changes in Mortality Patterns among the Elderly	29
2. Morbidity Profile	31
3. Disability Profile	36
4. Nutritional Status and Health Risk	41
5. Health Service Utilisation	43
D) Resources	46-53
1. Social Services	46
2. Health Services	50
3. Personnel and Education	51
E) National Long-term Plan of Action for the Elderly	54-56
Introduction of Thai Society of Gerontology and Geriatric Medicine	57
References	58
Index	64