

C O N T E N T S

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Introduction: "Child Labour Club for Working Children" .....                           | 4  |
| Chapter 1 Our Concept: Why the "Child Labour Club?"                                |           |
| Every child has to be developed in all aspects of life.....                                   | 7         |
| Lack of opportunity and service for child labour development ..                               | 7         |
| Encouragement of child participation in solving their ownproblems .....                   | 9         |
| Strategies to approach child labour with a"Peer-to-Peer" scheme .....                     | 13        |
| Chapter 2 History and Development of the Child Labour Club                         |           |
| Mobile out-reach programme for working children .....   | 15        |
| A pilot project of the Child Labour Clubat Worarat shopping Mall .....                    | 25        |
| Activities of the Child Labour Club.....  | 28        |
| Overall problems and Obstacles of the Child Labour Club .....                                 | 47        |
| Chapter 3 Lessons Learned from our Experiences (from both childrenand adults) |           |
| Running activities to serve children's needs .....  | 51        |
| Straightaway to target children .....   | 55        |
| Regular communication with target children .....  | 56        |
| Encouragement of child participation at all levels .....                                      | 58        |
| Advantageous results on working children .....  | 64        |
| Advantageous results on society .....   | 64        |
| Chapter 4 Voices from members of the Child Labour Club .....                       | 65 |