

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword | V |
| Preface | VII |
| 1. Child labour: Problems, policies and programmes (Assefa Bequele and Jo Boyden) | 1 |
| The scope of the problem | 1 |
| Forms of child employment, and associated risks | 1 |
| Work and income | 4 |
| Work, training and schooling | 5 |
| Child workers and their rights | 7 |
| Policies on child labour and working children | 9 |
| Legislation | 9 |
| The world between law and practice | 11 |
| A framework for policies and programmes | 14 |
| Recent developments in policy | 17 |
| Programmes on child labour and working children | 19 |
| Types of programmes | 19 |
| Lessons | 21 |
| Problems | 23 |
| Conclusion | 24 |
| Part I: The context | |
| 2. Child labour in Egypt: Leather tanning in Cairo (Ahmed Abdalla) | 31 |
| Introduction | 31 |
| Child workers in the leather-tanning industry in Cairo | 32 |
| The survey | 32 |
| Working conditions | 32 |
| Market forces and the extent of child labour | 37 |
| Policy choices and implications | 44 |
| Minimum age legislation: Problems of implementation | 44 |
| Implications of effective implementation | 45 |
| Conclusion | 46 |
| | IX |

Combating child labour

| | |
|---|-----|
| 3. Child labour in Colombia: Bogotá's quarries and brickyards (María Cristina Salazar) | 49 |
| Introduction | 49 |
| Child workers in Bogotá's quarries and brickyards | 50 |
| The background | 50 |
| The quarries | 51 |
| The brickyards | 52 |
| The role of children | 53 |
| Child labour, household income and adult employment | 54 |
| Child labour and schooling | 56 |
| Choices and benefits | 58 |
| The demand for child labour | 58 |
| Conclusion | 59 |
| 4. Child labour in Peru: Gold panning in Madre de Dios (Jesús Guillén-Marroquín) | 61 |
| Introduction | 61 |
| Gold panning in Madre de Dios | 62 |
| The production process | 63 |
| The labour force | 64 |
| Survey findings | 66 |
| Conclusions and recommendations | 74 |
| 5. Child labour in the Philippines: Wood-based and clothing industries (Institute of Industrial Relations, University of the Philippines) | 79 |
| Introduction | 79 |
| A profile of the child workers and their families | 79 |
| A profile of the enterprises | 81 |
| Terms and conditions of employment | 83 |
| Forms of employment | 83 |
| The clothing industry | 83 |
| The wood industry | 84 |
| Factors affecting child labour | 85 |
| Implications for child health and development | 86 |
| Policy implications | 89 |
| 6. Child labour in India: The carpet industry of Varanasi (Ramesh Kanbargi) | 93 |
| Introduction | 93 |
| The Indian carpet industry | 93 |
| The survey of working children | 95 |
| The area studied | 95 |
| The data | 96 |
| A profile of the child workers | 97 |
| The two large factories | 103 |
| The household survey | 104 |
| Policy implications | 106 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 7. Child labour in the Philippines: The Muro-Ami deep-sea fishing operation (Henk van Oosterhout) | 109 |
| Introduction | 109 |
| The Muro-Ami fishing operation | 110 |
| The background | 110 |
| The local fishing industry | 110 |
| The Muro-Ami Fishing Corporation | 112 |
| Recruitment and working conditions | 113 |
| Contracts and payments | 116 |
| Policy options | 118 |
| The issue of abolition | 118 |
| Alternative income and employment | 118 |
| Improvement of the Muro-Ami operation | 120 |

Part II: Policies and programmes

| | |
|---|-----|
| 8. Alternative services for street children: The Brazilian approach (William Myers) | 125 |
| Introduction | 125 |
| Serving street children in Brazil | 126 |
| Defining the problem | 126 |
| Searching for alternative solutions | 128 |
| Organising to promote change | 132 |
| Results and lessons | 134 |
| Effective programmes for street children | 134 |
| Development of effective delivery channels | 138 |
| The effectiveness of government channels | 140 |
| The question of community substitution for government | 141 |
| 9. Child labour policies and programmes: The Indian experience (Ashok Narayan) | 145 |
| The national policy framework | 145 |
| Legislative action | 146 |
| The National Policy on Child Labour | 146 |
| Government programmes for child workers | 149 |
| The Sivakasi project | 149 |
| The Varanasi project | 153 |
| Non-governmental programmes for child workers | 154 |
| The Indian Institute of Rural Workers | 154 |
| Jaya Rajendra Rag-pickers' Project, Bangalore, Karnataka | 155 |
| Rehabilitation of child labour, Ahmedabad, Gujarat | 157 |
| Conclusion and recommendations | 158 |
| 10. Child labour policies and programmes in Kenya (Philista P. M. Onyango) | 161 |
| Child labour in Kenya: An overview | 161 |
| National policy objectives and instruments | 164 |

Combating child labour

| | |
|--|------------|
| Institutional framework for policy formulation and implementation | 165 |
| Case studies of projects | 166 |
| Community drama project | 166 |
| The Undugu Society of Kenya | 171 |
| 11. The protection of working children and the abolition of child labour: Hong Kong (Pong Ping-Kwun) | 177 |
| Legal framework | 177 |
| The incidence of child labour | 178 |
| Enforcement policy | 179 |
| The role of education | 180 |
| Identity cards and proof of identity | 180 |
| Social security benefits | 181 |
| Employment policies and social aspirations | 181 |
| Conclusion | 181 |
| 12. Child labour policies and programmes in the Philippines (Bureau of Women and Young Workers) | 183 |
| Policy framework | 183 |
| Institutional framework | 184 |
| Experiences in programme formulation and implementation | 185 |
| Inter-Agency Task Force on Child Labour in the Muro-Ami Fishing Operation | 186 |
| The "street school for street children" | 188 |
| The Institute for the Protection of Children's "drop-in centre" "Smokey Mountain" project | 189 |
| Conclusion | 194 |
| 13. National policies and programmes for child workers: Peru (Jo Boyden) | |
| Introduction | 195 |
| National policy objectives and instruments | 196 |
| Institutional framework for policy formulation and implementation | 200 |
| Micro-level programmes | 202 |
| Huch'uy Runa | 202 |
| Gente del Mañana | 205 |
| Caritas de Lima | 208 |
| Manthoc | 212 |
| Conclusion | 215 |
| 14. Child labour policies and programmes in Colombia (María Cristina Salazar) | 217 |
| Institutional and legal frameworks | 217 |
| Case studies | 220 |
| Child workers in marginal urban areas of Bogotá | 220 |
| Child workers in Bogotá's cemeteries | 222 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Conclusions | 225 |
| Lessons for programme design and implementation | 225 |
| Difficulties in programme design and implementation | 226 |

Figure

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Child labour: A policy framework | 15 |
|---|----|

Tables

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Tasks of child workers in the Madabigh workshops according to employers | 33 |
| 2. Daily working hours of child labourers in the Madabigh workshops | 34 |
| 3. Children's perceptions of problems in the working environment | 35 |
| 4. The incidence of work-related accidents according to the Madabigh employers, 1982-85 | 36 |
| 5. Family circumstances and parents' employment status of child workers in the Madabigh district | 38 |
| 6. Average annual cost of schooling per child per annum, Egypt | 39 |
| 7. Distribution of employees by sex and age in the Madabigh workshops | 42 |
| 8. Madabigh employers' perceptions of effects of replacing child workers by adults | 45 |
| 9. Length of work experience for children in quarries and brickyards | 55 |
| 10. School attendance among children working in quarries and brickyards | 57 |
| 11. Signs and symptoms experienced by child workers and schoolchildren within two weeks prior to interview, by broad categories | 87 |
| 12. Non-specific signs and symptoms experienced by child workers and schoolchildren within two weeks prior to interview | 87 |
| 13. Relative weight of child workers and schoolchildren | 88 |
| 14. Social, economic and demographic indicators, Uttar Pradesh, Kerala and India | 96 |
| 15. Average number of members and adult workers per household by caste and religious group | 105 |
| 16. An estimate of the number of economically active children aged 12-13 in Hong Kong, 1967, 1971 and 1981 | 179 |
| 17. Occupations of children interviewed at Villa Javier | 223 |
| 18. Age distribution of the Villa Javier children | 223 |