

Contents

Preface	V
1. Overview: The decent work dividend	1
Our mandate	2
From Copenhagen to the Millennium Declaration	4
Towards a fair globalization	6
Our experience	7
Skills development for sustainable livelihoods.....	8
Investing in jobs and the community	8
Promoting entrepreneurship.....	9
Making money work for poverty reduction	9
Building local development through cooperatives.....	9
Overcoming discrimination.....	10
Working to end child labour.....	10
Ensuring incomes and basic social security.....	10
Working safely out of poverty	11
Our common challenge	12
Building an employment agenda	12
Building a more inclusive global economy	13
Building partnerships.....	14
Building bridges	15
Building trust	16
Building together	16
2. Work and the life cycle of poverty	19
Introduction.....	19
The cruel dilemma of school or work.....	22
Wasting opportunities: Youth unemployment	24
Women workers and the work of women	26
Agricultural workers and rural communities	27

Living and working in the urban informal economy	29
Hazards at work, health and the poverty trap	30
Growing old in poverty	31
The foundations of a decent work strategy for poverty reduction	33
Conclusions	35
3. Community action for decent work and social inclusion	37
Introduction	37
Skills development for sustainable livelihoods	38
Investing in jobs and the community	42
Supporting entrepreneurship in micro and small enterprises	44
Making money work for poverty reduction	49
Building local development through cooperatives	50
Securing incomes	53
Tackling work-related health hazards	57
Working to end child labour	58
Overcoming discrimination	62
Conclusions: Organizing to overcome poverty	64
4. Sustainable pro-poor growth and the governance of the labour market.	67
Introduction	67
Institutions, markets and development	68
Rights at work and development	69
Informal labour markets: A strategy for improving governance	72
Social dialogue and poverty reduction	75
Improving the performance of public services and formal sector enterprises	78
Conclusions: Institution building for decent work and poverty reduction	80
5. Decent work, poverty eradication and policy coherence	83
Introduction	83
Employment, productivity and social dialogue	84
International economic integration and social justice	87
Harnessing the potential and sharing the stresses of economic integration	89
Solidarity in a globalizing world	91
The HIV/AIDS threat	95
A coherent framework for national and local action	96
The Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper process: The ILO experience	99
Looking towards the future: A tripartite commitment to the eradication of poverty	101

Employment and enterprise development	103
Social protection.....	104
Rights and labour law reform.....	104
Social dialogue	104
Gender.....	104
Partnerships	105
Conclusions: Mobilizing the community of work to end poverty.....	105